

Manage Emotions

Emotional Intelligence is defined as the ability to manage one's emotions. Emotional competencies are the traits or skills of an emotionally intelligent person. Work with 2 or 3 other students in class and using the definitions listed on the right side of the page, place the letter of the correct definition on the space for each term listed on the left. There is only one correct choice for each term. After your group has matched the terms, have each person in your group explain their strongest trait.
